

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, George Strait, the District X Representative to the International Association of Personnel in Employment Security, will be addressing the South Dakota IAPES State Convention on Thursday, May 3; and,

WHEREAS, George demonstrates his friendliness to South Dakota by his encouragement of our water development policies, even though he lives in Lincoln, Nebraska, on the hardest street of all to locate in that esteemed city; and,

WHEREAS, George, a retired Marine Corps Reserves Lieutenant Colonel, is more than a friend to the members of the South Dakota IAPES having allowed certain female members of that organization to cry on his shoulder, and having wheeled several others to victory in the IAPES dance contests; and,

WHEREAS, George, renowned in IAPES circles, is being raised by his two lovely daughters, Shelley and Steph, and they report that their's is a difficult task indeed; and,

WHEREAS, George's family also includes Peanut and Honey, two squirrel-hunting canine Straits who escaped the city pound in George's arms only to develop a strange penchant for bus-stop rendezvous; and,

WHEREAS, South Dakota is grateful to George for traveling to Pierre to share his wisdom and insight with our IAPES delegates; and,

WHEREAS, It is fitting and proper for the Governor to make special note of the special visitors to our Great State:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim May 3, 1984, as in South Dakota, and I do so knowing full well that for this blessing, as with all his others, George is grateful. Semper Fi!

ATTEST:

Alice Kundert
ALICE KUNDERT, SECRETARY OF STATE

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-sixth Day of April, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Four
